Art Association "Souper Supper" Returns October 19

Following several years of tradition is the return of the Art Association of Henry County's Annual "Souper Supper." This year's event will be Saturday, October 19th, 2013 beginning at 6:30 p.m.

Ceramic artists donate bowls for this fund raiser for the art center. The artists who are donating bowls this year are Loretta Wray, Terry Dukeman, Ann McGlothlin, Angie Dishman, and Austin Custer.

Live music will be performed by Jacob Grear. If you heard him last year you know how good he is and if this is your first time, you are in for a treat!

A $25 ticket buys you a handmade ceramic bowl, and a delicious meal. There are at least five kinds of hearty soups to choose from along with plenty of hot breads and other sides. There is tea, lemonade, soda, wine and beer available to drink. Some great desserts round out the meal.

The Artistry Annex will be open at 5:00 p.m. for shopping with several ceramic artists displaying their wares as well as other merchandise for sale.

Mark your calendar! Come to the AAHC or call 529-2934 for tickets!

Chalk the Walk

If you happened by the east side of the New Castle Courthouse the last week in August this year, you may noticed some colorful sidewalk art! The Art Association's 1st Annual "Chalk the Walk" collaboration with Henry County Farmers' Market was a fun event for young and old.

Anna Leyes of the Farmers' Market and Angela Dishman of the Art Association brought this vision of Anna's to Henry County. The event was held August 24th during the Market festivities. Participants decorated a sidewalk square to create their own pastel impressions, market expressions, or imaginative graffiti right on the sidewalk around New Castle's Courthouse.

Judges of the event were Marsha Conway, Stephanie Morgan, and Loretta Wray. First, second, and third prizes were awarded in adult and children's categories by the Art Association, the Farmer's Market, and the Giddy Goat Soap Co.

The 2nd Annual "Chalk Walk" is scheduled for June 2014.

Artistry Annex Now Open

An artist cooperative showcasing hand-made, one-of-a-kind fine arts and crafts made in Henry County and the surrounding area recently opened at the southeast corner of 15th and Broad Streets, New Castle. Specially selected gifts and art for all those special occasions when mass-produced just won't do. The grand opening was October 5th and was a great success. The Annex will be open every Saturday from 10 a.m. to 3:30 p.m. and in conjunction with other AAHC events.

It all started last winter when a group of local artists, headed by Ed Tarantino, approached the AAHC about partnering. The AAHC agreed and also to allow remodeling of the front of the Annex building, which has been vacant for years. The shop is a place for our artist members to display and sell their work. It is a new option for local citizens to buy one-of-a-kind gifts. It is also one less empty storefront in downtown New Castle.

If you are interested in showing art in the coop please call or email the AAHC. All work is juried in to maintain a high quality and to sell you must be a member of AAHC.

Please check them out on Facebook on Artistry Annex page, or the Art Association of Henry County page. Buy local! Support Henry County.

Mary Morris Summer Art Days

In appreciation of our patrons' generosity, the Art Association of Henry County has given our local businesses a tribute in the following "thank you" page.

These donations to Mary Morris Summer Art Days 2013 allowed our creative youth to enjoy another art camp this past summer.

We look forward to Mary Morris Summer Art Days 2014 "Art of the Americas: Native American & Western Art", July 14, 2014.
